COURSE OUTLINE – Winter 2024

EN1220(D3): Texts and Contexts – 3 (3-0-0) 45 Hours for 15 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

Barker, Pat. Regeneration.

Remarque, Erich Maria. All Quiet on the Western Front.

Sibleyras, Gérald. Heroes.

Additional readings will be posted on myClass (D2L). It is your responsibility to ensure that you are able to access and read these works in advance of the class in which they will be discussed.

DELIVERY MODE(S): On-Campus

LEARNING OUTCOMES: After taking this course, successful students should be able to

- contextualize written responses to World War One by explaining how writers respond to key events in the timeline of World War One and its aftermath
- situate representative works in relation to wider literary and cultural movements
- define and use critical vocabulary suited to the discussion of English literature
- analyze texts through close reading
- respond critically to written works through writing
- describe the constituent parts of an effective essay (thesis statement, topic sentence, etc.) and reproduce these elements in their own writings
- format assignments according to MLA conventions

COURSE SCHEDULE/TENTATIVE TIMELINE:

Weeks One to Five – Outbreak and Endurance

Weeks Six to Seven – Reconstruction

Weeks Eight to Ten – Fragments

Weeks Eleven to Fifteen – Legacies

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. This course will be delivered on campus. Some course components (i.e. quizzes, tasks, the midterm, final exam, etc.) require onsite attendance.
2. Attendance rosters will be circulated at the beginning of each class. Students are responsible for signing the roster and must attend the full class to receive attendance credit. Students who are unable to attend class should notify me via e-mail before class begins (or soon thereafter if extenuating circumstances arise). Documentation may be required. Three or more unexplained absences will result in a failing grade for attendance (0).
3. Quizzes will take place at the beginning of class. Students must attend the full class to receive a mark for the quiz and may need to provide documentation to make up missed quizzes.
4. Tasks will be completed during class. Missed tasks can be completed only in extenuating circumstances. Students may need to provide documentation.
5. Students must complete the midterm and final exam during the allotted times. Alternative examination dates will be considered only in extenuating circumstances. Documentation may be required.
6. Assignments are to be uploaded to myClass (D2L) and submitted directly to me in hard-copy form. I will not accept assignments submitted via e-mail. Assignments will not be considered received until both electronic and hard-copy versions have been submitted.
7. Written assignments are to be submitted on time. Late assignments will incur a penalty of 5% per day with weekends counting as two days.
8. Extensions will be granted for written assignments in extenuating circumstances. Documentation may be required. Requests for extensions should be made before the assignment is due.
9. The myClass (D2L) site for this course contains everything you need to be successful. Resist the temptation to go outside of the course to consult literary guides, other websites, etc. You should avoid using AI resources when completing assignments. All of the work you submit MUST be your own. We will discuss academic integrity in class. Please note students are required to accept the Turnitin user agreement when submitting assignments.

10. It is the student's responsibility to retain a copy of all assignments submitted for grading; in the unlikely event of loss, a duplicate copy must be made available upon request.

11. Students are required to check the myClass (D2L) site for this course before each class to stay informed.

12. You are welcome to contact me via e-mail to ask questions, etc. Please note that you are more likely to receive a quick response if you contact me during regular working hours (Monday to Friday, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.). My response time on weekends will be slower. I will respond to most e-mails within 48 hours (depending on the volume of e-mails I receive). If you have a complicated question or are seeking specific assignment advice (i.e. if you would like me to read drafts, make suggestions regarding essay structure, etc.), you should contact me via e-mail and request to meet.

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT:

Academic Misconduct will not be tolerated. For a more precise definition of academic misconduct and its consequences, refer to the Student Rights and Responsibilities policy available at <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/index.html>.

**Note: all Academic and Administrative policies are available on the same page.
