

DEPARTMENT OF ARTS AND EDUCATION

COURSE OUTLINE – FALL 2013

WS 3000 Women's Studies A2 – 3 (3-0-0) 45 Hours

INSTRUCTOR: Cheryl Bereziuk PHONE: 780 539 2739
OFFICE: C301 E-MAIL: CBereziuk@gprc.ab.ca
OFFICE HOURS: Wednesday 11:30 – 2:20 p.m. or by appointment

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: none

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS: Feminisms Matter by Victoria Bromley

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: This course introduces the field of women's studies, with emphasis on the theoretical foundations of feminist analysis and the diversity of debates within feminism. The primary focus surrounds issues of gender as a social, cultural and political construct and how this intersects with race, class and sexuality. The course is also an opportunity to explore the shared and diverse aspects of women's experiences and show how women's studies as an academic discipline challenges the methods, theories and knowledge of traditional disciplines.

CREDIT/CONTACT HOURS: WS 3000 consists of three hours of instructional time each week

DELIVERY MODE: The course work includes lectures, class discussions, in-class group and individual work.

OBJECTIVES: The primary objective of WS 3000 is to introduce the field of women's studies such that students become familiar with the theoretical foundations of feminist analysis and the diversity of debates within feminism. The course is also an opportunity to explore the shared and diverse aspects of women's experiences.

TRANSFERABILITY:

GPRC has transfer agreements with the University of Alberta, the University of Calgary, the University of Lethbridge, Athabasca University, Concordia University College and Grant MacEwan University. Students should check with the receiving institution concerning transferability as all arrangements are subject to change.

Grades of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institution to ensure transferability.

GRADING CRITERIA:

Grades will be assigned on the Letter Grading System.

EVALUATION:

Exam 1	Chapters 1, 2, 3	20%
Exam 2	Chapters 4, 5, 6, 7	25%
Assignment		25%
Exam 3	Chapters 8, 9, 10, 11	30%
Total		100%

Note: In order to pass this class all three exams and the assignment must be completed.

Any incomplete grades or grade contentions must be done BEFORE the last scheduled lecture (except for the final exam of course). After the last scheduled lecture all grades, as they appear on moodle, will stand. Any grade contentions for either exams or the paper must be done in writing (work processed) and provide a detailed justification why the grade should be reconsidered with evidence (such as reference to specific page numbers to the APA publication manual).

If a student has a valid reason for being unable to attend an exam, the instructor must be advised via email before the exam is administered. Failure to notify the instructor of an absence and/or lack of a valid reason will result in a grade of 0 with no option to write a deferred exam or make up assignment. Permission to grant a deferred exam is at the discretion of the instructor and is contingent on a valid reason. Multiple requests for deferred exams or assignments are not typically granted irrespective of reason(s). Deferred exams are written in the testing center A205. Once permission from the instructor has been granted, contact Natasha Hipkiss at NHipkiss@gprc.ab.ca or 780 539 2954 to schedule the exam and then advise the instructor via email of the day and time well ahead of time.

Exams can consist of multiple-choice, short and long answer questions. Exact details will be given to you later in the term regarding each specific exam structure. Students are not permitted to leave the exam room once the exam has started until the exam has been completed and turned in. All electronic devices are prohibited from use at any time during exams. All exam marks are final. This means you cannot rewrite an exam because of a poor grade and there are no written assignments to make up for a poor exam grade.

The paper/assignment must be word-processed. It is important to save a copy of any written work handed in for credit or grading. Details on the assignment will be given to you on a separate handout at the beginning of the term. Topics for the paper must be approved by the instructor via email at least two full weeks before the paper due date or a 5% penalty will apply to the final paper grade.

Assignments are due on the date set by the instructor at the beginning of class in hardcopy-paper format. Do not print double-sided. The instructor does NOT accept emailed assignments. Unauthorized late assignments will have a 5% per day late penalty applied to the assigned grade (including weekend days). If there is a valid reason for an extension, it must be requested prior to the due date although students should be advised that extensions are rarely granted in lieu of the late penalty.

If a student does not hand in an assignment when it is due, the procedure is as follows:

1. Advise the instructor via email that the assignment has not be submitted and confirm the date it will be submitted.
2. Deliver the assignment directly to the instructor (in hardcopy/paper format NOT emailed) or to the Cashier's Office where it will be placed in the instructor's mailbox.
3. If placed in the mailbox confirm with the instructor the receipt of the assignment. The assignment will be considered submitted the day the instructor receives or picks up the assignment not the day it is placed in the mailbox.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Regular attendance is critical to success in this course. Should a student be unable to attend a class, it is the student's responsibility to acquire the missed material and to complete the assigned readings. The instructor does not lend out lecture notes.

Learning is an active process that will take effort on your part. Students are expected to read the chapters in advance of lectures, participate in activities and discussions in the classroom, and communicate with the instructor when difficulties are encountered with the course material. This is a seminar course meaning students must be prepared to engage in discussions during class time. Students are responsible for learning all of the assigned chapters, even if all the material has not been covered in lecture, as well as any other topic or video covered during class time.

Students are expected to display a professional attitude and behavior in the classroom including academic honesty, respect for and cooperation with your colleagues and the instructor, attention to colleague's questions and the instructor's response, and a determination to meet deadlines. Students who are unable to meet these expectations will be required to leave the class in the interest of preserving the learning environment for the other students.

Because the issues we will be discussing are complex and controversial, there are bound to be many different opinions about them. An important ground rule for this course is a commitment from all students to help build a respectful learning environment where we are all comfortable expressing our views and learn from one another. You are encouraged to keep an open mind, allow for the exchange of views, and respect opposing viewpoints. Also keep in mind that some of the issues we will address will be highly personal so consider the types of responses you are willing to share with other people in this class. It will be expected that all individuals will maintain confidentiality of the class discussions but you do not have to share experiences you would rather not disclose. Don't be afraid, however, of carefully examining what you believe and why you believe it. Also be cognizant of the fact that women's studies is an academic discipline that although draws from women's personal experiences is not meant to be a substitute for personal counseling nor an entertaining or dramatic chat session more suited to daytime talk shows. One of the difficult aspects of this course is that we will examine how we have been systematically taught and internalized misinformation about ourselves and others. We will also be confronting how we participate in this process ourselves. The issues confronted in this course will affect some of us deeply and personally. Please be gentle with yourself should issues arise for you and feel free to talk to the instructor about such matters or for a referral for counseling should the need arise.

If you have a disability, please self-identify to the instructor if you require any specialized supports.

Please be sure to familiarize yourself with moodle as all communication with students outside of class and office hours will be done via email to your gprc email account. Be sure to check your college email often or forward messages to your regular email account. Please also be sure to specify exactly which course you are in when contacting the instructor.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING: Please see the Student Conduct section of the College Admission Guide at <http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/> or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Plagiarism and Cheating at www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/. These are serious issues and will be dealt with severely. The instructor reserves the right to use electronic plagiarism detection services.
