

Groups

In some courses instructors may assign groups. For example, if you are assigned to a group for a discussion forum called Group 1, then when you click on the forum you will see:

This means you can only post to the Group 1 discussion. If the label says Visible Groups rather than Separate Groups, then you will be able to choose by a drop-down menu which group discussion you wish to post to.

Other activities that may have groups include assignments, chats, quizzes and wikis
