

Moodle@ GPRC

Moodle is an online Learning Management System (similar to WebCT or BlackBoard). The word Moodle is an acronym for Modular Object-Oriented Dynamic Learning Environment. Moodle is a Learning Management System used by instructors to create Web Sites to post course resources, notes, handouts, assignments, grades, quizzes, and to improve communication between students. It is a password-protected environment that you can access 24/7 from any computer with Internet access.

Logging In

Type "http://moodle.gprc.ab.ca" in the address bar of your internet browser.

When the page loads, enter your username and password in the Login box.

- Your username will be your 7-digit student ID
- Your password will be the same as the network password used to login to the PC's on campus.

Note: If you change your network password, then your Moodle password changes too.

Navigating Moodle

Once you login to Moodle, you will see the "My Courses" where all your courses will be listed. Course content will be organized by Topics, Modules or Weeks.

Content will appear in the middle of the page in the appropriate topic or week. The blocks on the left/right side of the screen may contain information on the Latest News for your course, Upcoming course Events, a Calendar, Recent activity and course updates.

Support

- For help logging in, email pclabrequests@gprc.ab.ca, or visit the lab request centre located in A306, or call 780-539-2030
- For help with Moodle, email edtechrequests@gprc.ab.ca, or drop in and ask for assistance at the Library Information desk.