

DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS

COURSE OUTLINE – Winter 2023

AR1370 (B3): VISUAL FUNDAMENTALS II– 3 (3-0-3) 90 hours for 15 weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

INSTRUCTOR: David McGregor PHONE: 780-539-2074

OFFICE HOURS: Wednesdays 11:30 – 12:30

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: A studio-based course with emphasis on the understanding of two and three dimensional design dynamics of visual form. A basic course where you will be introduced to various concepts and projects using a variety of art media. The second part of the course will build upon the knowledge of Part I and study color theory.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: AR1360

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS: No text. Students will be supplied a list of materials as required.

DELIVERY MODE(S): Lecture and Lab

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To teach students to perceive, identify and apply the basics of elements of art, principles of design and creative process. They will begin to communicate visually expressed information while understanding abstract and pictorial relationships.
2. To equip students with a visual and verbal vocabulary pertaining to art.
3. To assist students in developing and broadening their critical and aesthetic criteria.

4. To broaden the student's awareness, understanding and aesthetic application of art.
5. To assist students in identifying their own values in relationship to their environment.
6. To develop basic skills and techniques.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. To further broaden the students understanding and working knowledge of the elements and principles of visual language, which include the basic elements of design: form, line, shape, value, texture, color, space and the principles of organization: rhythm, balance, scale/proportion and movement.
2. The student will develop further the exploratory and critical thinking skills required in the production of a dynamic composition.
3. The student will continue to explore seeing/identifying, imagining and problem solving with emphasis on both individual and collective creative approaches, thus, contributing to their understanding and appreciation of the relationship between art and other disciplines.
4. The student will build on the ability to demonstrate the self-discipline required to make art in a professional manner.
5. The student will be able to build and construct both two and three-dimensional artwork.

TRANSFERABILITY:

Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at the Alberta Transfer Guide main page <http://www.transferalberta.ca>.

* Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability

EVALUATIONS:

Assignments are evaluated based on the level of creativity, craftsmanship, as well as problem solving. This includes demonstrating understanding and creative deployment of the elements and principles of this particular studio discipline. Participation grades are determined by the level of demonstrated engagement in studio work, individual/collective critiques as well as attending all classes.

In-Class and Homework Assignments: 85%

There are a combination of major and minor assignments through the term. There will also be a combination of solo projects and group work. Students will exhibit their work on the due date of each major project. There will be a deduction of half a letter-grade for each day that a work is late to a maximum of 3 days. If your work is not complete on the due date you are expected to be present and participate in the group critique.

Attendance and Participation: 15%

Attendance of all Visitor in the Arts events at NWP is required (with the exception of musical artists). The bulk of this grade is based on your commitment to your work as well as your contributions to the studio group. This includes feedback in critique sessions as well as more informal support for fellow students throughout the term. Any absences from class time must also be cleared with me within a few days of the absence.

GRADING CRITERIA: (The following criteria may be changed to suite the particular course/instructor)

Please note that most universities will not accept your course for transfer credit IF your grade is less than C-.
