CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: An introductory level studio course designed to give you a foundation in drawing primarily through the use of monochromatic media. Emphasis will be placed on the principles and techniques of drawing while simultaneously exploring expressive uses of the medium. You may work from the still life figure and landscape situations, as well as experiment with a broad range of drawing media.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: None

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS: Cost $200

A list of required materials will be distributed in class. No textbook required.

DELIVERY MODE(S): Lecture/Lab

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

During this course, the student will:

1. Record visual relationships in the environment and record these perceptions in terms of the elements of art (line, shape, value and texture)
2. Identify and apply the principles of aesthetic unity (balance, rhythm, repetition, dominance and contrast/variety) to the organization of the elements of visual art .
3. Manipulate the elements of visual art on a two-dimensional surface through using the principles of depth perception.
4. Have introduction to fundamental techniques and materials of drawing including the use of pencil, ink, conte and charcoal.
5. Possess introductory knowledge related to drawing the figure in monochromatic media.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: By the end of this course, students will:

1. Possess a basic working knowledge of the fundamental techniques and materials of drawing materials: pencil, ink, brush, ink wash, conte and charcoal.
2. Develop the basic skills to render and record the natural world.
3. Have introduction to basics of composition as related to drawing.

TRANSFERABILITY:

Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for specific course transfer information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at Alberta Transfer Guide's main page <http://www.transferralberta.ca> or use the direct course search at <http://alis.alberta.ca/ps/tsp/ta/tbi/onlineSearch.html?SearchMode=S&step=2>

Students have the final responsibility for ensuring the transferability of courses taken at Alberta Colleges and Universities.

Please note that most universities will not accept your course for transfer credit IF your grade is less than C-.

EVALUATIONS:

Mid-term:	40%:	Drawings completed by October 22, 2020.
Final:	40%:	Drawings completed by December 8, 2020.
Instagram Diary:	10%	Grade based on participation completed by December 8, 2020.
Involvement:	10%	Grade based on participation, and class attendance.

The majority of work will be done in class. If you are absent there will be no opportunity for you to cover the material missed. You will receive a zero grade on that class period project or drawing. If absent due to illness you must submit a doctor's note and will receive a N/A.

However, during the course of the semester there will be homework assignments so students can expect to have to commit additional time to the course. Late assignments will lose 10 % for each day they are late!

Participation: Students will be asked to sign in every class. They must make an effort to attend all lectures and participate in class discussions. Students should engage thoughtfully with the texts, their colleagues' comments and questions. During class discussions, students should respect and remain sensitive to other people's opinions and ideas. The instructor will not allow disruptive and intolerant behavior. If you are unable to attend class for health or other reasons please let your instructor know.
