

F-99

DRAMA 1010
INTRODUCTION TO THEATRE ART
3-0-0 UT

INSTRUCTOR: Karla Parks, BA, MFA
OFFICE: L111
PHONE: 539-2904

OBJECTIVES:

1. To introduce the student to the elements of theatre art
2. To develop the student's understanding of the genre of plays
3. To introduce the student to theatre aesthetics and history

SYLLABUS:

1. Development of the elements of theatre art: acting, directing, design, playwriting
2. Origins of theatre art
3. Overview of key historic events in the development of theatre art
4. Introduction to theatre aesthetics: a way of appreciating theatre

TECHNIQUES:

1. Lectures
2. Exercises and projects

GRADING:

In-class presentations.....	25%
Essay.....	15%
Essay.....	15%
Exam	25%
In-class quizzes.....	20%

Failure to complete each assignment will result in an incomplete recorded on your transcripts for this course.

TEXT: The Dynamics of the Art, Brian Hansen

*Mad Fridays

If you are a Fine Arts Major, you are required to attend performances/lectures presented by faculty and visiting artists on Fridays between 1 and 2 pm. A grade of 5% is attached to your attendance. Please present yourself to me if you are a fine arts major so that we may set up your schedule of attendance.