CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: Speech and movement improvisation with an emphasis on imaginative development will be included. It will be an introduction to the process of acting and to dramatic form.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: None

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS: None

DELIVERY MODE(S): Laboratory

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Introduction to Dramatic Process is a basic course in acting. The course aims to enhance students' self-confidence, oral expression, and creativity in both solo and group explorations.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By the end of this course students will be able to:

- Explore creativity, imagination, and expression through both personal awareness and group collaboration.
- Experience the creative process through acting and improvisation.
- Develop a greater understanding of the creative process through the following tools: imagination, concentration, physical control, cooperation, observation, self-confidence, and oral communication.
- Develop the capacity to create and participate in drama through both individual and group projects.

This class is a practical introduction to dramatic form and process through physical and verbal improvisation. There will be an emphasis on creative impulse, imagination, and group collaboration. The class will involve both individual and group work through movement, character, and storytelling tools, using both realistic and non-realistic styles of presentation. The emphasis will be on process, not on performance; however, you will be required to present both group and solo work. Therefore, during this class, you will participate individually, with partners, and in small groups. There is no required text for this course. PLEASE WEAR COMFORTABLE CLOTHES TO CLASS! (i.e. stretchy workout clothing or loose attire that allows freedom of movement. Please feel free to ask questions! Theatre is about exploration and awareness. During your creative process, please feel free to question and address any concerns that you may have.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- As an instructor, I strive to build a supportive and creative environment where students can explore the art of creating theatre using a variety of resources including imagination, personal experience, and research. Therefore, students must support and respect each other, the work of their peers, as well as their own work.
- This is a practical class with an emphasis on group work and participation. Students are expected to attend classes regularly. Missing classes will seriously impact student ability to succeed in the course.
- Cell phones must be turned off and stored away during class.
- Late assignments will be penalized by 5% per day.
- Students are responsible for play admissions. Whenever possible, we will aim to attend free dress rehearsals and/or performances. If ticket price becomes an obstacle, please notify the instructor in advance so that arrangements can be made to accommodate.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the Student Conduct section of the College Calendar at <http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/> or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Plagiarism and Cheating at <https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies>
