Scene Work

Students will workshop, rehearse, and perform two scenes and one monologue. The instructor will provide coaching in class to support your work. The first scene is worth 10%; the second, 15%; and the final monologue is worth 20%.

Each grade is weighted between individual process/performance, as well as group performance, and determined by the following criteria:

- Contribution to the rehearsal process
- Focus, commitment to the creative process, collaboration, and presence
- Originality during character development explorations
- Clear directorial vision
- Overall creativity

STUDENTS MUST COMMIT TO SPEND TIME OUTSIDE OF CLASS TO REHEARSE WITH THEIR SCENE PARTNERS.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

As an instructor, I strive to build a supportive and creative environment where students may explore the art of creating theatre using a variety of resources including imagination, personal experience, and research. Therefore, students must support and respect each other, the work of their peers, as well as their own work. Please review the following:

- Students must come to class dressed comfortably and ready to move around. Work-out or yoga apparel is more conducive to theatre work than skinny jeans.
- Students must come to class fully prepared for coaching, class workshops, and rehearsals with lines memorized and character development completed.
- During the process, students must research and understand the context of their scenes.

- More than 10% absenteeism (2 classes) may seriously impact a student's ability to complete the requirements for the course. Medical or extenuating circumstances will need to be documented and a copy given to the instructor.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties.
