EN 0090: This course is a continuation of EN0080 for students expecting to continue into courses requiring high school level competency in writing skills. The course content varies with the needs of each student.

Delivery Mode(s):

Students will work through a series of readings, exercises and a computer assisted learning program with help as required from the instructor.

Credit/Contact Hours:

Seventy-five hours or 5 hours per week

Objectives:

This course aims to provide each student with the skills to understand and appreciate language and to use it confidently and competently for a range of purposes. Students will explore thoughts, ideas, feelings and experiences and consider diverse opinions, while acknowledging the value of the ideas and opinions of others. Students will identify and trace the development of arguments, opinions or points of view in oral, print and/or other media. Students will summarize major ideas and supporting details, enhancing the clarity and artistry of communication by revising, and adding words and phrases that emphasize important ideas or create dominant impressions. Students will be encouraged to respect, support and collaborate with others.

Grading Criteria:

After the successful completion of all readings, exercises, assignments, midterm and final test as outlined, the student will receive a mark of CR or credit. Failure to complete will result in a mark of NC or no credit.

Instructor Policy:

All assignments and exercises for this course are to be submitted in the required format. Attendance is essential and is a critical component for success in this class. If you are experiencing difficulty in any area, please let me know so we can work something out before it is too late. Please advise me of any medical alerts that I should be aware of. It is the student's responsibility to acquire and complete any work missed due to absence.
