STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Your first assignment—a formal essay—must be word-processed or typewritten. Be sure to save a copy of any written work handed in for credit or grading. As well, students must submit a hard (printed) copy and email the instructor an electronic copy as an attached word document.

Assignments are due on the dates set by the instructor. Extensions are normally granted only in the event of sickness, hospitalization or extraordinary circumstances. A note from the doctor must accompany assignments submitted late on account of illness. Unauthorized late assignments will receive a late penalty of one letter grade per calendar day.

Regular attendance is critical to success in EN 1000. Should a student miss a class, it is the student's responsibility—through consultation with other students— to acquire the material missed and to complete the assigned readings, in-class work, and assignments to be done outside of class.

If a student does not hand in an assignment when it is due, the procedure is as follows:

1. Advise the instructor that the assignment has not been submitted and confirm the date it will be submitted.
2. Email the instructor an electronic copy of the assignment as an attached word document and submit a hard copy to him in person or deliver it to his office.
3. Confirm with the instructor the receipt of the assignment.

Assignments and projects not picked up by students will be held until the first week of May, 2018.

ATTENDANCE

Excessive absenteeism—defined as two or more unexcused absences per term—may adversely affect your grade. Students with six or more unexcused absences during the academic year (Sept. 2017-April 2018) may be debarred from writing the Final Exam.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the Student Conduct section of the College Calendar at <http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/> or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Plagiarism and Cheating at <https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies>

EXTENDED COURSE DESCRIPTION:

English 1000 examines representative works illustrating the development of the English literary tradition to the present. As a survey course, English 1000 traces the evolution of English literature back to the very origins of the English language. Students successfully completing this course will become familiar with the dominant genres in each age, grasp the main developments in various historical periods, and place individual authors and their respective works in the context of the English literary tradition as a whole. With its close look at works written by men and women who lived in different centuries, the course investigates literature as a continuum. By exploring innovations and continuities in the emergence of the English literary tradition, students will not only learn more about the aesthetics of literature, but will also acquire a solid foundation in the principles of clear writing and critical thinking.
