TRANSFERABILITY:

* For a complete list of letter grades, along with relevant descriptions, read very carefully the section on Grading Systems in the 2010-11 Calendar, p. 42.

** A Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability—particularly since all transfer arrangements are subject to change. GPRC has transfer agreements with the University of Alberta, University of Calgary, Athabasca University, University of Lethbridge, Concordia University College, King's University College and other institutions.

GRADES

Grande Prairie Regional College uses the alpha grading system and the following approved letter codes for all programs and courses offered by the College. All final grades will be reported to the Registrar's Office using alpha grades. Alpha grades will be converted to four-point equivalence for the calculation of grade point averages.

EXAMINATIONS: There is no final exam in my three sections of this course.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

All assignments must be word-processed or typewritten. It is particularly important to save a copy of any written work handed in for credit or grading. Equally important, students must submit a hard (printed) copy and also send the instructor an electronic copy as an email attachment.

Assignments are due on the dates set by the instructor. Extensions are normally granted only in the event of sickness, hospitalization or extraordinary circumstances. A note from the doctor must accompany assignments submitted late on account of illness. If you have a valid reason for requesting an extension, phone or email your instructor prior to the due date. Unauthorized late assignments will receive a late penalty of one letter grade per calendar day.

Regular attendance is critical to success in EN 1111. Should a student miss a class, it is the student's responsibility to acquire the material missed and to complete the assigned readings, in-class work, and assignments to be done outside of class.

If a student has valid reasons for not attending class on the day of a midterm exam, the instructor must be advised before the test is administered. Voice mail or e-mail notification is fine. The make-up exam will usually be written in the testing centre in A205. Failure to notify the instructor of an absence will result in a grade of 0.

If a student does not hand in an assignment when it is due, the procedure is as follows:

1. Advise the instructor that the assignment has not been submitted and confirm the date it will be submitted.
2. Email the instructor an electronic copy of the assignment as an attached word document and submit a hard copy to him in person or deliver it to his office.
3. Confirm with the instructor the receipt of the assignment.

Assignments and projects not picked up by students will be held until the end of the first week of the following semester.

AN IMPORTANT NOTE ABOUT PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

Please refer to pages 48-49 of the 2010-11 GPRC calendar regarding plagiarism, cheating and the resultant penalties. These are serious issues and will be dealt with severely. Keep in mind that your instructor employs electronic plagiarism detection services.

ATTENDANCE

Excessive absenteeism—defined as two or more unexcused absences per term—may adversely affect your grade.

EVALUATION / GRADING:

Your grade on course work, regular tests, exercises and assignments will be determined as follows:
