EVALUATION:

There will be several unscheduled reading quizzes during this course, and in terms of preparation, these will only require careful reading of the day's assigned text. A final examination will be scheduled in April by the registrar, and students must not make travel plans before this exam date is available.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Essays will not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been approved by the Professor. Penalties of 10% per day late may be applicable in these cases. All essays must be typed, double-spaced, and stapled together. Assignments not meeting these criteria will not be accepted. No essay may be submitted by e-mail.

2. Quizzes cannot be made up, but in the case of a verifiable medical emergency, with official doctor's note, may be excused.

3. The reading outline is subject to change according to time constraints and other considerations; therefore, students are responsible for any changes that are announced in class whether they are in attendance or not.

4. Please keep a copy of all written work. In the event of theft or loss, the student is required to submit a duplicate copy.
5. Cell phones must be turned off during classes. This also means NO TEXTING or INTERNET SURFING during class time.
6. Students are expected to check the Moodle site for this course before each class to stay informed; in the event of a class cancellation, the announcement will be posted to Moodle.
7. Students are advised to read the College Calendar for the rules regarding Registration, Withdrawals, Academic Misconduct including plagiarism, and Appeals.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Please refer to the College Calendar regarding plagiarism, cheating, and the resultant penalties. These are serious issues, and they will be dealt with severely.
