COURSE SCHEDULE/TENTATIVE TIMELINE:

COURSE GLOSSARY

All core course concepts are identified and defined in the Course Glossary. All entries in the Course Glossary are taken from the readings, videos and notes for the course and serve to provide insight into the most relevant concepts of the course.

MODULE READINGS & VIDEOS
Every module in this course is accompanied by a selection of readings and multimedia resources. There are specific readings and videos for each week and supplemental readings and videos for each overall module that students may access if they wish. This list includes all required readings and videos. Links to all readings, videos, and supplemental materials can be found in the notes for each module, along with a summary of key points from the resources assigned for that module.

Please note: This course makes use of links to YouTube, Vimeo, and similar video hosting sites. The videos linked in this course all feature scholars, community organizers, and knowledge keepers. While they are not authoritative in the same way as a published book or research paper, students should regard the resources supplied as important sources of information. This course also makes use of several written sources that are ten years old or more. These sources present foundational arguments necessary to understanding Indigenous governance, and remain relevant to core course concepts.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Please view the file:
https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/fetch.php?ID=69

In order for you as a student of GPRC and in this course to ensure your own success, it is important that you:

- That you complete all of the assigned course materials and the exercises within the module during the weeks assigned in the course schedule.
- In case of illness or emergency, that you notify the instructor as soon as possible.
- If you find yourself having difficulty in this course, that you contact the instructor immediately for assistance.
- If you simply want more discussion with the instructor about any aspect of the course, you should arrange via email an appointment during office hours or at a convenient time. This can be in person or by telephone for those studying via distance education.
It is expected that all students will display a professional attitude and behavior throughout the course. This includes reliability, respect for and cooperation with your fellow students and the instructor, guest speakers, and community-engaged/land-based components. In addition attention to fellow students’ questions and instructor’s responses, determination to achieve first-class work while meeting deadlines, and constructive response to criticism are all important to your success.

Also, please ensure that you are familiar with using Moodle: https://moodle.gprc.ab.ca/my/

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the Student Conduct section of the College Calendar at http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/ or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Plagiarism and Cheating at https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies

Instructors reserve the right to use electronic plagiarism detection services on written assignments. Instructors also reserve the right to ban the use of any form of electronics (cell phones, Blackberries, iPods, tablets, scanning pens, electronic dictionaries, etc.) during class and during exams.

Note: all Academic and Administrative policies are available on the same page.

Additional Information:

1. For those in the Grande Prairie area, you are encouraged to participate in GPRC Friendship center events and ceremonies that happen outside of our scheduled activities.

2. The nature and topics of your assignments will be discussed.

3. It is your responsibility to read each and every assigned reading and attend all required face to face/land-based learning course components.

4. Video sources may cover topics and include materials that are not covered by your readings. It is therefore imperative that you review all readings and videos and engage in all required course activities.

5. It is expected that students will display a professional attitude and behavior. Any violation or misconduct may result in dismissal from the class. Furthermore, this course includes participating in Indigenous learning events and possibly ceremonies. If at any time you are uncertain or need more information, please do not hesitate to connect with me in person or schedule a time over the phone. Discuss the various options to demonstrate learning for the class assignments with me if you are uncertain.
6. Talk to me if you have concerns or you are experiencing difficulties that may have negative impact on your academic performance.
