CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: This course is designed to create an environment in which students can begin to critically examine social work in its broadest terms. The purpose of the course is to enable students to reflect and examine their values, beliefs, and feelings in relation to society of which they are members and to explore their present and potential roles and responsibilities as a social work practitioner. Students will examine dominant influences that affect decision-making and communication in society. The course will provide an opportunity for students to relate and integrate these ideas with the philosophies and values of social welfare from a structural social work perspective.

CREDIT/CONTACT HOURS: 3 credits / 3 hours per week

DELIVERY MODE(S): Remote via D2L and Zoom Classes (biweekly 7-9 p.m)

OBJECTIVES:

1. To develop an understanding of the values and ideology relevant to the development of the social welfare system in Canada.

2. To understand the ways in which these values and ideology affect the provision of social services in Canada.

3. To identify students own values and ideas with respect to social welfare and to understand how these have been shaped.

4. To understand the contribution of social welfare to a civil society.

5. To explore social work and impact in the north, rural and Indigenous communities.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- 1. Have knowledge of how social work contributes to a social welfare state.
- 2, Identify social work as a helping profession situated in an ethical framework

ASSIGNMENT SPECIFICATION

Assignments have been designed to be reflective of the many skills required of a social worker in Canada. The ability to both write and communicate to an audience is important to all social worker roles, as is the ability to work effectively with groups/teams. The assignments therefore reflect this variety. Assignments submitted late will receive a 25% penalty. No assignments will be accepted one week past their due date and therefore will receive a score of "0".

1. Sept 17: Values Analysis 10%

Reflection paper: 1st person, formal, 4-6 pages APA format (headings are strongly encouraged) Instructions:

- a) Rank order your top four values
- b) Explain why these are your core values AND what purpose/function they serve in your life.
- c) Critical Analysis: Thinking about the class values exercises you completed, were there contradictions to your positions? Congruence? Emergent themes in relation to your core values?

d) Diverse Perspectives: What was it like to hear other perspectives- the challenges and celebrations in this?

d) Conclude your paper by stating what awareness you are taking forward with you into your chosen profession.

Grading: Please check D2L for grading rubric.

2. Sept 21-Sept 25: Tommy Douglas Discussion Forum 5%

After Watching the Greatest Canadian Tommy Douglas Video (link on D2L), students will participate in a discussion forum examining the political context of the era in comparison to social welfare in Canada today. Guiding questions and grading rubric is on D2L

3. Oct 1: "From the Grave" Mindmap 10%

Using a mind mapping tool such as Popplet (for a list of free tools please see: https://www.educatorstechnology.com/2012/06/18-free-mind-mapping-tools-for-teachers.html) OR creating their own and uploading a photo of it, students will prepare and submit a mind map detailing the life and times of a social work pioneer from a prepared list. Detailed instructions and grading rubric is on D2L.

4. Oct 22: Academic Theory Paper 20%

The purpose of this paper is for students to critical appraise and determine what factors shape the theories that will guide their social work practice. APA format (7thEd) MUST be used with referencing of text and three additional ACADEMIC references. Formal academic writing [as well as first person (I statements) in the influencing factors section and conclusion ONLY] is used as writing style. Headings are strongly recommended.

Instructions: Using Chapters 3 and 4 in Hicks & Stokes as well as D2L readings, academic peer reviewed articles (min. of three NOT including textbook) and class discussions:

a) Theories most suitable to your practice. Review, using references a theory or theories you believe will be most suited to your professional practice. Include sufficient substance to demonstrate understanding of the theory(ies). Are there particular ideas/beliefs of these theories you are particularly drawn to?

b) Consideration of Influencing Factors. Write about elements that you believe influence your choice of theory to review. This can include things such as your personal values, the population you would be working with, the ethical code of the profession, your vision as a helper, etc.

c) Critical Appraisal: What do you imagine to be the strengths and challenges of your selected theory(ies)? Are there particular populations or settings your theories are most suited / not suited to?
d) Conclude your paper with what learning you are taking forward with you into your chosen profession.

4. November 9-22 (25%, two parts: power-point & discussion forum)

Powerpoint: Prepare and post (to D2L) BETWEEN NOV 9-13 a power-point presentation addressing a social issue with a social welfare program (15%).

Discussion forum: respond with substance (in D2L) to a MINIMUM of four other students' powerpoints BETWEEN NOV 16-22- (10%).

Grading Rubrics for both parts of the assignment are on D2L.

Part One: Powerpoint instructions (10 slides maximum):

Note: power-points must be engaging, not just written detailed, this is NOT a paper!!! Creativity and engaging backgrounds are also part of the grade!

- a) about 3 slides: describe (using , minimally,narrative and images, hyperlinks) a social issue.
 - What is the social issue in Canada (Unites States data is NOT acceptable)
 - Who does it affect (use referenced resources like Statistics Canada, AB statistics, Health Canada, CBC news, Child Welfare Research Portal.
 - What are the effects of the social issue (link to the social determinanties of health).

b) about 2 slides: what is a social program in Canada that apparently addresses your social issue?Who is actually eligible to receive services within this program? Who is missing out?

c) about 1 slide: what are the values and ideologies present in the social program? What message is society giving about the social issue through the program?

d) about 3 slides: Action plan & Critical Appraisal. What would you do differently to address the social issue? How would it be more helpful than what we currently have in place? What message would your action plan give?

e) 1 slide: reference page – list the references you used for your presentation and suggest at LEAST TWO helpful websites for us to get more information about the social issue & program.

Part two: Discussion Forum

Instructions:

Review at least four other student presentations on D2L between November 16-November 22. Respond to their postings with concise ideas/thoughts about the social issue or social program. What stands out? What are you learning? What does it make you think/feel? Link it back to social welfare and social work. Note: it is about quality of the postings and critical analysis present, please refer to grading rubric on D2L.

5. Dec 10: Submission of Final Examination 30%

 Students will complete a written exam composed of short answer and essay questions compiled from text and article readings as well as in class instruction.
 Students will be given a selection of questions to assist in preparing for the examination.
