In order to personalize the ceremony, we like to include comments about our students. If you would like us to include something on your behalf, please fill in your comments below – you must keep to fewer than 25 words. We may have to edit somewhat for clarification, grammar or brevity, but we will endeavour to maintain the content.

Some examples:

Tracey had a fun 2 years at GPRC and made many lasting friendships and memories. She is appreciative of those who helped her achieve her goals and could not have done it without you.

Tony returned to College when he needed to change careers after an injury. He and his daughter started college together and are both graduating today.

Susan thanks her family and instructors for their encouragement and support while she finished her degree and her classmates for the late night study sessions.

these words are used repetitively so you may want to consider alternatives

Most students do submit some comments. Although you may not think this is important now, when the day comes and students are introduced with personal notes, you will be pleased that you took the time to complete this.

If you do not get your comments to us by the application deadline, we cannot guarantee they will be included in the ceremony.

PLEASE PRINT your comments clearly. Please keep comments UNDER 25 WORDS.

Last minute hand written cards presented on convocation day WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Please Print Your Name Pronunciation Here:

(if you believe the speaker announcing you will have a problem pronouncing your name please write out how it “sounds” for us to relay to them)

Please clearly print your comments here in the 3rd person (see samples above).

PLEASE NOTE: Comments may be edited for grammar, punctuation, brevity and clarity, however, every attempt will be made to keep the sentiment expressed. Disparaging comments will not be permitted.

I hereby give permission to GPRC to present at Convocation this comment on my behalf.
